

In vain
I sought to find that which I had lost intangible....

In the fragile patterns of snowflakes or in a prism web shiny from the mornings dew not unlike the crystal tear falling....

A search
with unseen eyes
the soul
reflecting the silent plea The search which finds answers on subway walls,
broken hearts and in
dusty corners

I wonder.... where all those dreams and promises long broken
fled?
They faded as I watched the daisy's bloom
as I let time slip through my hands
fleeting....

Striving....

perhaps to understand the straining of invisible strands

there,

yet

illusive as the pale shadows of the moon

Finding
their end in childhood treasures yellowed photographs,
frootloops,
and a child's box marked
-private-

Eagerly I opened it
but

found tarnished memories of happier days and I began to realize
It all existed...
The magic
which made fantasy real and reality a dream had vanished
and I found that I had grown up.

And still my heart refuses to understand and grows weary however

I have found what I was looking for, and I am content as I gather colors from the rainbow and Search....
